Bureau of Justice Assistance Adult Drug Court Discretionary Grant Program FY 2013

5

BJA is accepting applications for FY 2013 grants to establish new drug courts or enhance existing drug court services, coordination, and offender management and recovery support services. The purpose of the Adult Drug Court Discretionary Grant Program (42 U.S.C. 3797u et seq.) is to provide financial and technical assistance to states, state courts, local courts, units of local government, and Indian tribal governments to develop and implement drug courts that effectively integrate evidenced-based substance abuse treatment, mandatory drug testing, sanctions and incentives, and transitional services in a judicially supervised court setting with jurisdiction over substance-abusing offenders.

FY 2012 RFP available at:

<https://www.bja.gov/Funding/12BJASAMHSADrugCourtSol.pdf>

- (3) SAMHSA awards have been up to $325,000 per year for each year of 3 year grant with no match required.
- (4) It is a complex treatment-focused RFP restricted to OPERATIONAL adult criminal courts or family/child dependency courts.

OJJDP Family Drug Court Programs

FY 2013

8

The Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (OJJDP) will award funding to enhance the capacity of family drug courts. The Family Drug Courts program builds the capacity of states, state and local courts, units of local government, and federally recognized tribal governments to either implement new drug courts or enhance pre-existing drug courts for individuals with substance abuse disorders or substance use and co-occurring mental health disorders, including histories of trauma, who are involved with the family dependency court as a result of child abuse, neglect, and other parenting issues. Applicants must provide services to the parents in the program and their children. This program provides seed money, not long-term support. OJJDP expects successful applicants to develop and implement a sustainability plan during the grant period to continue operation of the family drug court when the grant ends. This program is authorized by 42 U.S.C. 3797u, et seq.

CTAS (Coordinated Tribal Assistance Solicitation)

9

The Department of Justice launched CTAS in Fiscal Year 2010 in direct response to concerns raised by Tribal leaders about the Department's grant process that did not provide the flexibility tribes needed to address their criminal justice and public safety needs. Through CTAS, federally-recognized Tribes and Tribal consortia are able to submit a single application for most of the Justice Department's Tribal grant programs. The Department of Justice designed this comprehensive approach to save time and resources and allow tribes and the Department to gain a better understanding of the Tribes' overall public safety needs.

For more information on CTAS – see www.justice.gov/tribal and www.justice.gov/tribal/open-sol.html

Application Due Date:

March 19, 2013

CTAS: What is New in FY 2013

- The solicitation and application process is beginning earlier in the funding cycle by opening in late December, 2012.
- The question-and-answer templates have been coordinated across Purpose Areas to ensure more uniformity and cohesiveness.
- The strategic planning program has been updated so that it can serve as a mechanism for Tribes to more effectively access coordinated comprehensive funding.

- If the Tribe or Tribal consortium chooses this option, your application must explain how these multiple funding requests will work together to address tribal concerns.

While planning and before submitting...

17

- If you are working on your application and you make a single file made up of separate attachments-DO NOT submit it to DOJ this way.
- It is very important to use separate attachments of documents when submitting your application to DOJ.
- Clearly label each attachment
- Combine related attachments such as resumes so peer reviewers are not overwhelmed with multiple attachments

OPEN SOLICITATIONS

FY 2013 COORDINATED TRIBAL ASSISTANCE SOLICITATION (CTAS)

On December 11, 2012, the Department of Justice (DOJ) announced the opening of its Coordinated Tribal Assistance Solicitation (CTAS) period for funding to support public safety, victim services and crime prevention improvements for American Indian and Alaska Native governments.

CTAS is administered by DOJ's Office of Justice Programs (OJP), the Office of Community Oriented Policing Services (COPS) and the Office on Violence Against Women (OVW). The funding can be used to conduct comprehensive planning, enhance law enforcement, bolster justice systems, support and enhance efforts to prevent and control delinquency and strengthen the juvenile justice system, prevent youth substance abuse, serve sexual assault and elder victims, and support other efforts to combat crimes. For more information on the FY 2013 CTAS, visit the CTAS Factsheet or the CTAS FAQs.

Applications for CTAS are submitted through DOJ's Grants Management System \(GMS\) which enables grantees to register and apply for CTAS online. Applicants should register early, but no later than Tuesday, March 5, 2013, in order to resolve any potential difficulties in advance of the application deadline.

The FY 2013 CTAS reflects improvements and refinements from earlier versions. Feedback was provided to the department through tribal consultations and listening sessions, from a specially developed assessment tool about the application experience and written comments from applicants and grantees.

For the FY 2013 CTAS, a tribe or tribal consortium will submit a single application and select from 9 competitive grant programs referred to as purpose areas. This approach allows the Department's grant-making components to consider the totality of a tribal community's overall public safety needs. The deadline for submitting applications in response to this grant announcement is 9:00 p.m. EST on Tuesday, March 19, 2013.

The 9 purpose areas are:

1. Public Safety and Community Policing (COPS)
2. Comprehensive Tribal Justice System Strategic Planning (BJA)
3. Justice Systems and Alcohol and Substance Abuse (BJA)
4. Corrections and Correctional Alternatives (BJA)
5. Violence Against Indian Women-Tribal Governments Program (OVW)
6. Children's Justice Act Partnerships for Indian Communities (OVC)
7. Comprehensive Tribal Victim Assistance Program (OVC)
8. Juvenile Justice (OJJDP)
9. Tribal Youth Program (OJJDP)

Tribes or tribal consortia may also be eligible for non-tribal- government-specific federal grant programs and are encouraged to explore other funding opportunities for which they may be eligible. Additional funding information may be found at www.grants.gov or the websites of individual agencies.

CTAS Frequently Asked Questions:

Justice Systems and Alcohol and Substance Abuse

2. Can I request funding for both a Tribal court program and an alcohol and substance abuse program under purpose area #3?

Yes, you may request grant funding for one or more areas of focus within this Purpose Area. This can be either one comprehensive project integrating the two areas or two distinct separate projects with separate program management depending on the needs of your Tribe. If you choose to request funding for two distinct programs, your application should show how the two projects are related and how, together, they will improve public safety and the overall justice system for your tribe. Regardless, you should still submit *only one* Purpose Area narrative for purpose area 3 describing all of the programmatic activities that you are proposing under the broad area of justice systems and alcohol and substance abuse. Your narrative may encompass two different programs (eg: 1 court focused & 1 alcohol and substance abuse focused) but they must both be described within a single narrative.

CTAS Frequently Asked Questions: Justice Systems and Alcohol and Substance Abuse

7. Is it a requirement to have an advisory board?

No, an advisory board is not required. However, an advisory board is recommended. If the Tribe establishes an advisory board it should be sustained throughout the entire project period and should emphasize Tribal and non-Tribal partnerships. Advisory board members are encouraged to attend BJA training and technical assistance activities.

8. Who should be a part of the advisory board?

It is recommended that an advisory board consist of a minimum of seven members. The advisory board should be led by a member of the tribal council or a criminal justice partner (such as lead law enforcement official, tribal justice, lead correction official) depending on the focus of the criminal justice component of the program. The Co-Chair of the advisory board should be a lead representative from an alcohol, substance abuse agency or field. The advisory board should include representation from key stakeholders, and decision-makers within the Tribe to ensure successful strategy development and implementation. Applicants should give strong consideration to including representatives from tribal government, tribal law enforcement and tribal courts (if your Tribe has this structure), and other key partners and agencies within and outside tribal community addressing issues such as: treatment/health/mental health; adult and juvenile corrections/probation; education; economic development; social/family related services.

9. Can a Tribal government with a service population of less than 1,000 apply to plan, implement or enhance a Single Tribal Court System?

10. Do Tribes have to allocate a specific amount over the project period to cover travel and other costs for attending BJA training/court-related meetings?

Technical assistance and training remains a critical component toward planning, implementing, enhancing, and sustaining tribal justice systems. You should budget for travel costs of up to two Department of Justice-sponsored grant meetings. You should estimate the costs of travel and accommodations for two staff to attend two meetings, with one trip to Washington D.C. and one in their region. The time period for each grant meeting will be approximately 3 days.

11. If my tribe is applying for multiple areas of focus under PA #3 can we request $750,000 for each project?

CTAS RFP: Pros and Cons

50

A few PROs for Tribal Healing to Wellness Court Funding under CTAS RFP:

- More time to prepare application – the due date is not until March 19, 2013
- Tribal specific RFP/funding source
- Specific references to Tribal Healing to Wellness Courts in purpose areas #3, 8, and 9
- Peer reviewers will have tribal court specific knowledge
- Under BJA purpose area #3 (TCAP/IASAP), there is substantial funding ($16.8 million) and many grant awards annually (approximately 25-35 awards; approximately $250,000-$750,000 per award; 3 year project period)
- Potentially more flexibility to design a Tribal Healing to Wellness Court to meet the specific needs of an individual community ( for example - Violent Offender Prohibition does not apply to CTAS and program design not as specifically required to adhere to the drug court key components)
- No match requirement
- Tribal Healing to Wellness Court objectives can be better incorporated into an overall tribal plan through CTAS
- Most tribes are already planning to submit CTAS proposal – so a Tribal Healing to Wellness Court proposal could simply be added to the overall Tribal CTAS proposal (that is, stand-alone Tribal Healing to Wellness Court proposal not required)

CTAS RFP: Pros and Cons

51

A few CONS for Tribal Healing to Wellness Court Funding under CTAS RFP:

- Not a Tribal Healing to Wellness Court specific RFP/Solicitation
- Peer reviewers may not have adequate drug court specific knowledge
- Since each CTAS purpose area incorporates a very wide range of possible projects and programs in addition to Tribal Healing to Wellness Courts, there will likely be a great deal of competition with each tribe and tribal court concerning which possible programs to include in the tribe's CTAS application
- Very complex CTAS application process with many moving parts requiring substantial intra-tribal coordination especially within larger tribes
- The page and format limitations of CTAS may not provide enough space to adequately describe a project as complex as a Tribal Wellness Courts – especially if other programs are included in a tribe's specific purpose area proposal
- No guarantee that any Tribal Wellness Courts would be funded under CTAS RFP/Solicitation

Common CTAS Problems: biggest reasons for unsuccessful CTAS applications overall

52

- Not responding to all of the requested information
- Failed to draw connection between pressing problems identified in the “tribal community and justice profile” and programmatic activities proposed in the “purpose area narrative.”
- Not providing the requested information in relevant section where peer reviewers could easily locate it
- Failed to draw the connection between the proposed budget and the programmatic activities requested in the “purpose area narrative.”
- Inconsistencies within proposal - different writers by section
- Did not provide specific measurable targets for performance measures

Tips for submitting a CTAS proposal

53

- 1. Read the Solicitation. Read entire solicitation and follow all instructions carefully. No detail is too small and no instruction should be ignored. Be sure to respond to all questions and requirements in the solicitation.
- 2. Check all of the resources available through the Online CTAS website. Many required forms – such as the vital narrative questions by purpose area – are only available through online CTAS website.
- 3. Don't wait until the deadline to apply! Avoid connection issues with the Internet or the Grants Management System (GMS) and apply early. GMS runs slowly on the deadline day because of increased website traffic. Apply at least 72 hours before the deadline!
- 4. Go back and review the “tribal community and justice profile” after completing the purpose area narratives: Make changes as needed to ensure that the connection is clearly drawn between pressing problems identified in “tribal community and justice profile” and programmatic activities requested in “purpose area narrative.”
- 5. Go back and review the budget after completing the purpose area narratives: Make changes as needed to ensure that the connection is clearly drawn between proposed budget and programmatic activities requested in the “purpose area narrative.”

Tips for submitting a CTAS proposal

1. Contact the relevant agency/personnel if you have any questions about the solicitation, eligibility or purpose areas.
2. Submit a single application for each Tribe. The Tribe's single application should request funding from all available DOJ Tribal government-specific grant programs, according to the Tribes' needs.
3. Include all required documents listed in the checklist by the deadline.
4. Complete a budget that justifies what the application is proposing for each Proposal Area requested.
5. Include additional documents as required by each Purpose Area!
6. Follow Directions! Pay close attention to formatting, file name, spacing, margins, and page length requirements.

General Approach to Federal Grants

55

- 1. Plan Ahead – *Do Not Wait until the RFP is out
- 2. Regular Annual Rhythm/Pattern for most Federal Grants
(RFP in January-April with Grant Award not until September)
- 3. Contact Agency Grant Managers
- 4. Contact Tribal Technical Assistance (TA) Providers
- 5. Review Online Resources and Prior Proposals
- 6. Serve as Peer Reviewer *(or at least Mock Peer Review Exercise)
- 7. Register on Grants.gov and GMS well ahead

If You Have Applied Unsuccessfully:

56

- Always ask Agency to provide you with strengths and weaknesses comments
- Keep prior proposals & comments (although different review panel each time)
- Ask Agency what other services can be provided such as:
  - Training and Technical Assistance (T/TA) without grant
  - Capacity Building
  - Scholarships for Conferences/Trainings
- Ask Agency who was funded and for copies of successful applications
- Ask Agency for TA Provider contact information

Request for Proposal (RFP)

Questions/Issues

57

- Contact Agency contact person listed on RFP
- Document any information / advice from Agency (email confirmations)
- Where applicable, footnote relevant information / advice from Agency in proposal itself so that peer reviews are informed
- Ask for TA Provider contact information and contact TA Provider
- Ask for samples / templates and / or successful applications
- Ask if Agency provides TA for potential applicants
- Ask about the odds of funding by program:
  - How many usually apply
  - How many are usually funded

Tips for Writing Grants

58

- Focus on deadline and any necessary attachments (tribal resolutions, support letters)
- Focus on scoring criteria (think of it as a checklist because it is)
- Use scoring criteria as a general guide for how many pages you devote to each section
- Always answer every question / address every issue
- Use all available pages
- Utilize attachments if at all possible (timeline, support letters, etc.)
- Follow all format directions (such as labeling sections/page numbering)
- Make it easy for the reviewer to read and score
- Have staff internally review and score
- Always PDF everything
- Always label clearly
- Do something different, interesting, and replicable
