CTAS

Coordinated Tribal Assistance Solicitation

DOJ launched CTAS in FY 2010 in response to Tribal leaders' concerns about the inability of Department's grant process to provide the flexibility tribes needed to address their criminal justice and public safety needs.

Through CTAS, federally-recognized Tribes and Tribal consortia submit a single application for most of DOJ's Tribal grant programs.

For more information on CTAS – see www.justice.gov/tribal

CTAS: Application Timeline

❑ Solicitation:

- ❑ Opened November 20, 2014
- ❑ Closes February 24, 2015 (9pm Eastern)
- ❑ For applicants without Internet access who cannot submit an application electronically to DOJ's Grant Management System, please contact the Response Center at 1.800.421.6770 no later than January 23, 2015 to request instructions on how to submit an application by alternative means.

- Potentially, unfunded FY 2015 applications may be considered and funded in FY 2016.
- Tribes may apply as part of a consortium and individually, so long as the applications are for distinct activities.
- Purpose Area 8 has transformed from “Juvenile Justice” to “Juvenile Healing to Wellness Courts”

- Identify and articulate the needs of your community through data driven processes
- Generate and capture ideas and solutions from your community
- Organize key community players to execute the proposed program

While planning and before submitting...

- If you are working on your application and you make a single file made up of separate attachments-DO NOT submit it to DOJ this way.
- It is very important to use separate attachments of documents when submitting your application to DOJ.
- Clearly label each attachment.
- Combine related attachments such as resumes so peer reviewers are not overwhelmed with multiple attachments.

FY 2015 CTAS SOLICITATION

On November 20, 2014, the Department of Justice announced the opening of the grant solicitation period for comprehensive funding to support public safety, victim services, and crime prevention improvements in American Indian and Alaska Native communities. The Coordinated Tribal Assistance Solicitation (CTAS) is administered by the Justice Department's Office of Justice Programs (OJP), Office of Community Oriented Policing Services (COPS), and Office on Violence Against Women (OVW). The funding can be used to enhance law enforcement; bolster adult and juvenile justice systems; prevent and control juvenile delinquency; serve sexual assault, domestic violence, and elder victims; and support other efforts to combat crime. The department's Fiscal Year (FY) 2015 Coordinated Tribal Assistance Solicitation (CTAS) can be viewed below.

What is a Drug Court?

From BJA Drug Court RFP:

Drug courts are part of the larger universe of problem-solving courts, and have been demonstrated (where implemented in an evidence-based manner) to reduce recidivism and substance abuse among high-risk substance abusing offenders and increase their likelihood of successful rehabilitation through:

- early, continuous, and intense treatment,
- close judicial supervision and involvement (including judicial interaction with participants and frequent status hearings),
- mandatory and random drug testing,
- community supervision,
- appropriate incentives and sanctions, and
- recovery support aftercare services.

CTAS Frequently Asked Questions:

Justice Systems and Alcohol and Substance Abuse

2. Can I request funding for both a Tribal court program and an alcohol and substance abuse program under purpose area #3?

Yes, you may request grant funding for one or more areas of focus within this Purpose Area. This can be either one comprehensive project integrating the two areas or two distinct separate projects with separate program management depending on the needs of your Tribe. If you choose to request funding for two distinct programs, your application should show how the two projects are related and how, together, they will improve public safety and the overall justice system for your tribe.

Regardless, you should still submit *only one* Purpose Area narrative for purpose area 3 describing all of the programmatic activities that you are proposing under the broad area of justice systems and alcohol and substance abuse. Your narrative may encompass two different programs (e.g.: 1 court focused & 1 alcohol and substance abuse focused) but they must both be described within a single narrative.

CTAS RFP: Pros and Cons

A few PROs for Tribal Healing to Wellness Court Funding under CTAS RFP:

- Tribal specific RFP/funding source
- Specific references to Tribal Healing to Wellness Courts in purpose areas #3, and 8
- Peer reviewers will have tribal court specific knowledge
- Under BJA purpose area #3 (TCAP/IASAP), there is substantial funding ($16.8 million) and many grant awards annually (approximately 20-30 awards; approximately $250,000-$750,000 per award; 3 year project period)
- Potentially more flexibility to design a Tribal Healing to Wellness Court to meet the specific needs of an individual community
- No match requirement
- Tribal Healing to Wellness Court objectives can be better incorporated into an overall tribal plan through CTAS
- Most tribes are already planning to submit CTAS proposal

CTAS RFP: Pros and Cons

A few CONs for Tribal Healing to Wellness Court Funding under CTAS RFP:

- Not a Tribal Healing to Wellness Court specific RFP/Solicitation
- Peer reviewers may not have adequate drug court specific knowledge
- Purpose Area #3 incorporates a very wide range of possible projects and programs in addition to Tribal Healing to Wellness Courts, there will likely be a great deal of competition with each tribe and tribal court concerning which possible programs to include in the tribe's CTAS application
- Very complex CTAS application process with many moving parts requiring substantial intra-tribal coordination especially within larger tribes
- The page and format limitations of CTAS may not provide enough space to adequately describe a project as complex as a Tribal Wellness Courts – especially if other programs are included in a tribe's specific purpose area proposal

Common CTAS Problems: biggest reasons for unsuccessful CTAS applications overall

- Not responding to all of the requested information
- Failed to draw connection between pressing problems identified in the “tribal community and justice profile” and programmatic activities proposed in the “purpose area narrative.”
- Not providing the requested information in relevant section where peer reviewers could easily locate it
- Failed to draw the connection between the proposed budget and the programmatic activities requested in the “purpose area narrative.”
- Inconsistencies within proposal - different writers by section
- Did not provide specific measurable targets for performance measures

Tips for submitting a CTAS proposal

1. Read the Solicitation. Read entire solicitation and follow all instructions carefully. No detail is too small and no instruction should be ignored. Be sure to respond to all questions and requirements in the solicitation.
2. Check all of the resources available through the Online CTAS website. Many required forms – such as the vital narrative questions by purpose area – are only available through online CTAS website.
3. Don't wait until the deadline to apply! Avoid connection issues with the Internet or the Grants Management System (GMS) and apply early. GMS runs slowly on the deadline day because of increased website traffic. Apply at least 72 hours before the deadline!
4. Go back and review the “tribal community and justice profile” after completing the purpose area narratives: Make changes as needed to ensure that the connection is clearly drawn between pressing problems identified in “tribal community and justice profile” and programmatic activities requested in “purpose area narrative.”
5. Go back and review the budget after completing the purpose area narratives: Make changes as needed to ensure that the connection is clearly drawn between proposed budget and programmatic activities requested in the “purpose area narrative.”

Tips for submitting a CTAS proposal

1. Contact the relevant agency/personnel if you have any questions about the solicitation, eligibility or purpose areas.
2. Submit a single application for each Tribe. The Tribe's single application should request funding from all available DOJ Tribal government-specific grant programs, according to the Tribes' needs.
3. Include all required documents listed in the checklist by the deadline.
4. Complete a budget that justifies what the application is proposing for each Proposal Area requested.
5. Include additional documents as required by each Purpose Area!
6. Follow Directions! Pay close attention to formatting, file name, spacing, margins, and page length requirements.

General Approach to Federal Grants

1. Plan Ahead – *Do Not Wait until the RFP is out
2. Regular Annual Rhythm/Pattern for most Federal Grants
(RFP in January-April with Grant Award not until September)
3. Contact Agency Grant Managers
4. Contact Tribal Technical Assistance (TA) Providers
5. Review Online Resources and Prior Proposals
6. Serve as Peer Reviewer *(or at least Mock Peer Review Exercise)
7. Register on Grants.gov and GMS well ahead

If You Have Applied Unsuccessfully:

- Always ask Agency to provide you with strengths and weaknesses comments
- Keep prior proposals & comments (although different review panel each time)
- Ask Agency what other services can be provided such as:
  - Training and Technical Assistance (T/TA) without grant
  - Capacity Building
  - Scholarships for Conferences/Trainings
- Ask Agency who was funded and for copies of successful applications
- Ask Agency for TA Provider contact information

Tips for Writing Grants

- Focus on deadline and any necessary attachments (tribal resolutions, support letters)
- Focus on scoring criteria (think of it as a checklist because it is)
- Use scoring criteria as a general guide for how many pages you devote to each section
- Always answer every question / address every issue
- Use all available pages
- Utilize attachments if at all possible (timeline, support letters, etc.)
- Follow all format directions (such as labeling sections/page numbering)
- Make it easy for the reviewer to read and score
- Have staff internally review and score
- Always PDF everything
- Always label clearly
- Do something different, interesting, and replicable
