

Tribal Veterans Wellness Court Symposium

August 22-23, 2019
Hilton Garden Inn Missoula
Missoula, MT

Thursday, August 22nd

8:30am – 10:00am Welcome and Introductions

10:00am – 11:00am Why Have a Veterans Treatment Court

Carolyn Hardin, Chief of Training and Research, National Association of Drug Court Professionals

David Pelletier, Project Director, Justice for Vets, National Association of Drug Court Professionals

This session will provide a brief overview of veterans treatment courts. It reviews the impact that military culture as well as multiple clinical and criminogenic needs have on justice involved veterans. Strategies and best practices when working with this challenging population are discussed. Attendees will be able to identify what a veterans treatment court is; Learn why we have them; identify elements of veteran culture; identify the needs of veterans in the veterans treatment court; and receive resources available for developing a veteran treatment court.

11:00am—11:15am Questions

11:15am – 11:30am Break

11:30am – 12:30pm Native Veterans: Considerations

Sean Bear, Co-Director, National American Indian and Alaska Native Addiction Technology Transfer Center

Ray Daw, M.A., Health Administrator

This presentation will overview the National American Indian and Alaska Native Addiction Technology Transfer Center's new curriculum for serving Native veterans. Topics will include the history and context of warriors and veterans in Native societies; unique considerations for the role of trauma as distinct from non-veterans; and resources that both tribal and non-tribal communities can leverage to provide culturally competent care.

12:30pm – 12:45pm Questions

Tribal Veterans Wellness Court Symposium

August 22-23, 2019
Hilton Garden Inn Missoula
Missoula, MT

12:45pm – 2:15pm Lunch On Your Own

2:15pm – 3:15pm Military and Veteran Culture

Scott R. Swaim, Director of Adult System of Care for National Aetna
Medicaid

When you are part of a culture, it is sometimes hard to see the culture and understand how it impacts the many aspects of your life. So much of our beliefs, world views, and actions have been influenced by the culture we come from and how connected we are to that culture. For those that serve in the military there are variety of sub-cultures based on branches, time in the military, world events and experiences that occur while enveloped in military service.

3:15pm – 3:30pm Questions

3:30pm – 3:45pm Break

3:45pm – 4:45pm A Native American Docket: 8th Judicial District of Montana

Hon. Gregory Pinski, District Judge, Montana Eighth Judicial District
Kathy Hanks, Native American Cultural Coordinator, Montana Eighth
Judicial District
Wes Old Coyote, Executive Director, Indian Family Health Clinic

In light of a significant portion of the docket include American Indians and Alaska Native participants, the Eight Judicial District of Montana established a Native American docket, devoted solely to the Native population. Through this model, the district has been able to provide more culturally relevant services, as well as better collaborate with their tribal partners to serve their participants for better and more long-lasting outcomes.

4:45pm – 5:00pm Questions

Tribal Veterans Wellness Court Symposium

August 22-23, 2019
Hilton Garden Inn Missoula
Missoula, MT

Friday, August 23rd

8:30am – 10:00am Welcome and Introductions

10:00am – 11:00am Mentors in Veterans Court

Brenda Desmond, Standing Master of the State of Montana, Fourth Judicial District Court; Associate Justice, Fort Peck Tribal Court of Appeals

In veterans treatment court, volunteer veterans engage, encourage, and empower their fellow veterans to change their lives, following our Mentor Corps motto: "Leave no veteran behind." This includes offering support in securing housing, finding a job or obtaining job training, furthering education, securing transportation, filing disability compensation claims, contesting discharge status, and generally connecting veteran participants with services available to them at the local, state, and federal level. Recently, in 38 C.F.R. § 14.628(b)(2), the VA added tribes to the entities that can assist veterans with claims. This workshop will overview the role of mentors in veteran treatment courts, as well as other resources tribes can use to serve their participants.

11:00am – 11:15am Questions

11:15am – 11:30am Break

11:30am – 12:30pm From Combat to Historical: Identifying and Treating Trauma

Alicia Mousseau, PhD, Training and Technical Assistance Specialist, National Native Children's Trauma Center

The National Native Children's Trauma Center will provide a comprehensive overview of the science of trauma, its manifestations both historical and experiential, and how service providers can provide both a trauma-informed environment as well as responsive trauma interventions. This workshop will focus on trauma as it relates uniquely to veterans, but will also touch on the need for trauma-informed care for all Wellness Court participants.

12:30pm – 12:45pm Questions

Tribal Veterans Wellness Court Symposium

August 22-23, 2019
Hilton Garden Inn Missoula
Missoula, MT

12:45pm – 2:15pm Lunch On Your Own

2:15pm – 3:15pm Veterans, Tribes, and the Critical Role of Data

Julie Marie Baldwin, Associate Director of Research, School of Public Affairs, American University

American University will examine the intersection of Healing to Wellness Courts and veteran treatment courts, and provide a detailed break-down on the type of data that both tribes and Native-serving state treatment courts should be collecting. Only with a comprehensive understanding of our populations, their histories, their families, and their needs, can service providers meaningfully build a responsive program, and improve upon those programs.

3:15pm – 3:30pm Questions

3:30pm – 3:45pm Break

3:45pm – 4:45pm Tribal Veterans Treatment Courts – An Alternative Approach for Justice-Involved Indian Veterans

Carol Scott, Esq., Legislative and Veterans Affairs Chair, Veterans and Military Law Section, Federal Bar Association

Veterans Treatment Courts increasingly provide a viable alternative to incarceration of combat veterans for offenses often derivative of events experienced in service to their country. This paper seeks to provide an introduction to the concept of applying this approach to tribal justice and tribal courts. It is based in part on the history of the warrior tradition and traditional concepts of justice within the tribal community

4:45pm – 5:00pm Questions